Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the complaint, the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report, and the evidence presented at the detention hearing establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required. I further find that there is clear and convincing evidence that no conditions or combination of conditions of release will assure the safety of the public.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant Leonard Charles O'Neal, Jr. is a 25 year old U.S. citizen who lives in Houston, Texas.
2. O'Neal is unemployed and depends on his parents and in-laws for support.
3. O'Neal is charged with armed bank robbery, a violent offense. Following his arrest, he gave a statement acknowledging that he was standing in the bank lobby with a rifle while his co-defendants were removing money from the bank vault. Several eyewitnesses also placed O'Neal at the scene.
4. O'Neal has prior convictions for assault, aggravated robbery and possession of marijuana. He is an admitted former member of the Black Disciples street gang.
5. O'Neal has failed to rebut the statutory presumptions in this case.
6. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community.. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.
